

Family Night at the Santa Barbara Maritime Museum After Dark: Underwater Creatures

What: Family Night is an opportunity to view the Maritime Museum from an entirely different perspective. Our goal for the evening is to present interactive learning activities for the entire family.

Activities include:

- Sculpting Sea Creatures with Sondra Weiss, Lost Art of Love Letters
- Ocean Rock Art with Holly Lohuis, Ocean Futures Society
- Face Painting by Tea in Tiaras
- Mini octopus, starfish, and sea turtle LEGO® builds
- Kid friendly snacks and adult friendly beverages

When: Wednesday, February 21, 2018

Where: Santa Barbara Maritime Museum, 113 Harbor Way, Suite 190, Santa Barbara, CA 93109

Cost: $15 (SBMM member family) • $25 (non-member family)

RSVP: Go to www.sbmm.org/all-events

Please RSVP in advance (this allows us to plan on the correct amount of supplies)

The mission of the Museum's Education Department is to encourage the curiosity of children through the use of interactive exhibits, experiential learning, and community outreach programs with special emphasis on California's maritime history.

For more information please contact the Education Department:

(805) 456-8741 or education@sbmm.org

Program support provided by

